The right materials, the right people with the right skills. Above all, the right attitude to getting the job done right.

“ Oak View have worked with us on the latest phase of a major development in Cambridge and on the basis of this experience I would place them firmly in the higher echelons of landscape contractors - and I'm not easy to please.

Work flow is carefully planned and always executed on time and their staff take real pride in the job. The great thing is they understand and respect our deadlines so things go as smoothly as they can.”

Russell Dawkins, Site Manager, Crest Nicholson plc.

“ I have worked with Oak View Landscapes for several years now initially as a Senior Site Manager and more recently as a Production Director. I have witnessed first hand their speed of response, organisational and technical skills, and their ability to deliver high quality landscapes to specification within our demanding timescales.”

Barry Pennock, Production Director, Taylor Wimpey East Anglia Ltd.

“ As a business which specialises in the creation of homes in historic and listed places we recognise the importance of creating landscapes which respect the buildings. My role places me between the construction team and the architect so I am well placed to see the lengths to which Oak View go in order to fully understand the brief. As a matter of course they find ways of working which save cost but never at the expense of finished quality. They are also adept at communicating effectively throughout the project to ensure the best possible end result.”

Nick Racey, Project Co-ordinator, City and Country Construction.

“ Oak View Landscapes have worked with Barratt Eastern Counties on many projects, varied in size and complexity, with one winning a national landscape award. Their communication with our site teams shows they have an excellent understanding of the requirements of our build programmes, delivering a timely service without compromising the end product. A most dependable quality landscape contractor.”
